SALVA RUBIO
EFA

The tale of how young Django grew up to become Django Reinhardt.

› DJANGO MAIN DE FEU

DJANGO: HAND ON FIRE

The childhood story of Django Reinhardt, a Roma raised outside Paris who would go on to become one of the most influential guitarists of all time. We follow his early years as an aimless and rebellious boy headed for a life of trouble until his devoted younger brother convinces their mother to buy him a banjo. He is soon playing in clubs and winning awards and is on the verge of international success at the tender age of 18 when a tragedy strikes that will mark the rest of his life and career. An amazing story of perseverance and of fierce family love that is little known even to many fans of the world of jazz.

INHUMAN

A space exploration team has crashed on a mysterious planet in the search for a new home for mankind. Here they will meet humans just like them who speak their language. But despite their peaceful appearance, these inhabitants are slaves to a "Grand Master" that they follow blindly. One by one, the members of the team will be mentally trapped by the Grand Master, all except for Ellis, a female robot that will lead the revolution for liberty alongside the salt stealer people.

GUILLEM MARCH

Sometimes, suicide is the result of a misunderstanding. It's a "code red" for Karmen.

› KARMEN

KARMEN

A graphic novel about death and suicide... but not in the way you might think. Here, death can be reversed, if and when the right angels are looking. The deceased is Catalina, a self-absorbed student who kills herself out of heartbreak. The angel— facetious and unusual—is Karmen. Her capacity for empathy is so great that she leads "her" dead on a journey toward redemption and, believe it or not, back to life!

FRANK PÉ

Frank Pé takes Winsor McCay's dream-loving character on a journey into his own poetic and naturalistic imagination.

› LITTLE NEMO

LITTLE NEMO

Bringing back to life the famous characters created by Winsor McCay in 1905, Frank Pé invites them to wander in his own wild and poetic world. The author of Zoo and Broussaille adopts elements of McCay's revolutionary work to create this moving, colorful, large-format homage to a beloved classic. From one century to the next, Pé offers a wonderful rewriting in the style of a dream-filled journey; a celebration of nature and the mysteries of childhood.

MUHAMMAD ALI, KINSHASA 1974

In 1974, Muhammad Ali had the incredible opportunity to reclaim his world heavyweight title against the current holder, George Foreman. They would face off in the ring in Zaire. Organized by promoter Don King and financed by the dictator Mobutu Sese Seko, the aim of the fight was to promote Zairianisation (cultural decolonization). The poster for the fight read: "A gift from President Mobutu to the people of Zaire and an honor for the Black Man."

THE CHILDREN OF ANGER (BOOK 2)

For decades, the planet Aegis has been dominated by the Confederation of Northern States. Its superior technology and military have enabled it to exploit the natural resources of the underdeveloped south. A resistance group decides to fight back using a new type of mecha. At first glance they seem rather basic, but they are fast and well-organized. When the Confederation finally catches one, they discover that the mecha is being piloted by a child...
