ARSÈNE LUPIN: THE STRANGEST OF JOURNEYS

On the transatlantic ship La Provence, the captain informs the passengers that the famous thief Arsène Lupin is on board and that a woman's jewels have been stolen. Panic immediately sets in as the passengers all become suspicious of each other. Led by Bernard d'Andrésy, they attempt to weed out the thief hidden among them with the few clues he left behind. But the Gentleman Burglar is never where you expect him to be!

A precious birth book that celebrates birth, respect for others, and nature.

› JE SUIS UN ARBRE

I AM A TREE

This charming birth book is based on a dialogue between a tree and a child as they both grow up simultaneously. They realize how much they have in common, how they both belong to nature and need it to be healthy. To illustrate this beautiful text on the harmony between mankind and nature, Anne Crahay used die-cuts and the egg tempera technique, which is one of the earliest types of painting and makes complete sense given the subject of this poetic book.

À L'ÉCOLE

ON THE WAY TO SCHOOL

Each of the five stories in this collection begins the night before school starts. Squirrel, Badger, Weasel, Worm, and Prawn all experience fear in their own particular way as they approach the school gate. With finesse and warmth, the authors explore the contradictory feelings that this major milestone incites.

DIX DE PLUS, DIX DE MOINS

TEN MORE, TEN LESS

Milly is living happily and peacefully in her beloved house when one day, ten abandoned dogs show up asking for shelter... The good-natured Milly welcomes them with open arms: "Ten more, ten less, there's always room." They are all living in their beloved house when ten plants trying to escape the night frost beg for hospitality. Then ten fish, shellfish, owls, turtles... "There's always room!" Until the day the house's walls begin to shake, twist, and wince...

↳ OÙ SONT PASSÉS LES OISEAUX ?

WHERE HAVE THE BIRDS GONE?

In the last thirty years, a quarter of the bird population has disappeared. All over the world, scientists are sounding the alarm: numbers are plummeting and some species are close to extinction. This documentary offers an overview of the situation, retraces the complex relationship between man and birds (defined by fascination and exploitation), explains the causes of this disaster, and gives us hope by offering concrete ways to act and protect nature. We can save the birds!
