VALÉRIE TONG-CUONG

An uncompromising novel about a social facade that suddenly disintegrates; a fascinating reflection on the roots of evil.

UN TESSON D'ÉTERNITÉ

A SHARD OF ETERNITY

Anna Gauthier leads a quiet, sheltered existence between her pharmacy, her villa overlooking the ocean, and her close-knit family. But then an incident occurs and her son Léo, a high-school student with no prior history, gets caught up in the justice system. Anna is powerless as she watches her world fall apart around her, a world she built up brick by brick, carefully measuring each step to maintain complete control. What happens when a grain of sand jams up the machine and shatters all pretense?

ADÈLE BRÉAU

A holiday resort in the heart of summer. Four lonely people who never should have met. A story of friendship and redemption under the sunshine.

HAUTE SAISON

HIGH SEASON

At the reception desk of the Laguna Club, Germain welcomes new arrivals to this holiday resort, where families can relax, enjoy the summer, and forget their problems, both large and small. But what can such different people have in common? Between volleyball games, Nordic walking, and "entertainment nights," how can these vacationers, living in such close quarters, find a way to break the ice despite the secrets they brought along in their baggage?

NINA BOURAOUI

After the success of Otages, Nina Bouraoui brings to life a new, radiant female voice, that of Madame Akli.

› SATISFACTION

SATISFACTION

After the war for independence, Madame Akli settled in Algiers for Brahim, her husband. With their son, they live in a house in the city, where her identical days flow into weeks. In a diary, she writes down that which she can't say to anyone. Like the terrifying war that is secretly brewing at the end of the 70s, everything is hidden, suspended. Until the day she meets Bruce and Catherine, and Madame Akli allows herself to be carried away.

THE HUNTED

A PACK NEVER STOPS
CHASING ITS PREY

30 years after the end of Apartheid, who have the Furies, goddesses of punishment, come to avenge in Paris? Convinced that the biologist Chloé Tarense is innocent, the detective Starski will do everything in his power to find out who is after her. But new murders are committed, and all the evidence points to her. Starski slowly realizes that he is always one step behind the killers. Worse, he might have become their prey himself...

A visceral novel about obsession, bolstered by the brutal and tense writing that distinguishes Sandrine Collette.

› CES ORAGES-LÀ

THOSE THUNDERSTORMS

Clémence is 30 years old when, driven by the energy of despair, she manages to escape a toxic relationship. Three years trying to believe in true love, three years during which she felt herself slowly dwindling to nothing. Today she lives as a recluse, without friends or family, in a small crumbling house whose yard resembles a jungle. How can she continue, every minute of every day, to resist the temptation to go back to him?
