› TÉNÉBREUSE

DARKNESS

Arzhur is an outcast knight. He drifts from the tavern to the battlefield in search of the next contract to fill his purse. Needless to say, such behavior is frowned upon by his brothers-in-arms. Then he accepts the deal of his dreams: to win back his honor and riches, he must liberate a king's daughter. But the princess in question has a legacy of destruction. What exactly is her relationship with the three old women who paid Arzhur to free her? Where do her dark powers come from, which even she seems to fear?

ENRICO MARINI

An American film noir story with all the ingredients of Marini's success: femmes fatales, suspense, and a touch of violence.

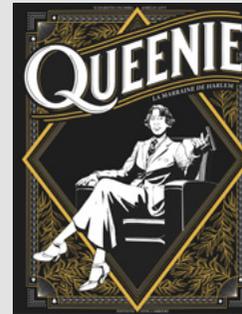

› NOIR BURLESQUE

NOIR BURLESQUE

After a hold-up gone wrong, Slick finds himself deep in the red with local mafia boss Rex. But that's not the only thing setting them at odds: they also have their sights set on the same woman, the beguiling Caprice. She's engaged to Rex and headlines his club, where she thrills the nightly crowds. She's off-limits, but Slick has never been one for limits. And he has unfinished business with Caprice, who was once his own sweetheart before the war pulled them apart. And now, they're playing with fire.

AURÉLIE LEVY
ELIZABETH COLOMBA

The true story of Stephanie Saint-Clair: how a maid in Martinique became the ruthless queen of Harlem's mafia and a fierce advocate for the black community.

› QUEENIE : LA MARRAINE DE HARLEM

QUEENIE THE GODMOTHER OF HARLEM

Queenie traces the life of a woman who played several intertwining roles. A pitiless mob boss, polyglot, fashion icon, and pioneer figure of African-American feminism, Saint-Clair redefined the expression "larger than life." She broke barriers, glass ceilings, and was one of the few Prohibition-era mobsters to die of old age. This arresting biographical work of cinematographic action reinstates a fascinating character back into the narrative of written history.
