MY "WHY" ENCYCLOPEDIA 200 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS TO UNDERSTAND EVERYTHING

What is the favorite word of children everywhere?
Why, of course!
Why do I have a belly button?
Why can't I fly like Superman?
Why do dogs sniff their butts?
Why do planes leave white trails behind them in the sky?
Why were castles fortified?
Why do I ask why?
Children will find short, clear, and precise answers to 200 questions they ask about animals, science, history, and also about their bodies and daily life. The figurative and humorous illustrations by Benoît Perroud are sure to attract their attention while making them laugh and think.

MARIE DORLÉANS

Thanks to her magnificent illustrations, Marie Dorléans takes us right back to our childhood. Let's embark on a fantastic walk to the fort of our dreams.

OUR FORT

Each day, three friends meet and walk through the countryside to go to their fort. But one day, the wind blows and the branches are shaking ... A storm is coming! Their walk becomes a great adventure and a real odyssey through a sometimes peaceful, sometimes threatening landscape. The three friends will remain united, hand in hand, until they reach their destination and we finally discover if their fort withstood the storm... Here, Marie Dorléans explores a new graphic style in this delicate picture book full of poetry, reminiscent of the universe of Miyazaki.
