When one of his relatives, a renowned robotics expert, disappears, Chief Inspector Isabelle Mayet is put on the case. But the police, threatened by this artificial intelligence, will pay a high price. And the divisive SARA begs the question: how much freedom are we willing to relinquish in the name of security?

PIERRE VESPERINI

A brilliant essay on the cancel culture movement and what is at stake in our changing relationship to the past.

› QUE FAIRE DU PASSÉ ?

THE PAST: A CHANGING PERSPECTIVE

The historian and philosopher Pierre Vesperini explores the meaning of the cancel culture movement with much-needed precision. Through three detailed case studies that allow us to reflect on the removal of statues from the public space, the ever-growing presence of trigger warnings in cultural industries, and the role of Classical Antiquity today, we are able to take a step back from the current controversies and grasp what is at stake in these debates.
