Buchet Chastel

Editions Buchet/Chastel was founded in 1936 by Edmond Buchet and Jean Chastel. Edmond Buchet was a devoted talent scout who discovered many new French authors (Blaise Cendrars, Maurice Sachs) and also published established authors (André Gide, Paul Valéry, Colette). With an avant-garde spirit, he built a strong list of contemporary foreign literature (Henry Miller, Lawrence Durrell, Malcolm Lowry). From 1970 to 1994, Guy Buchet focused on developing non-literature series and launched a "Spirituality" series about yoga and Buddhist thought. The house joined the Libella Group in 2001. Since then, it has preserved and developed its focus on literature: French and foreign fiction, essays and non-fiction, and a newly developed interest in other fields, such as ecology.

ITALIAN MATCH

Gaspar is a renowned Parisian artist who is in high demand. Yet, in this month of April, all he wants is to go to Rome for a few days. There, sitting in front of a café and a chessboard one morning, he meets Marya, a Hungarian woman and a formidable adversary. Their story blossoms on the chessboard, before taking wing elsewhere. Under the attentive eye of Giordano Bruno, whose statue surveys Campo de' Fiori, their love will assert itself, as unrelenting as a checkmate.

THE SECRET CODES OF MUSIC

WHAT THE GREAT COMPOSERS
REVEAL AND HIDE FROM US

The history of music and the famous works of the greatest composers contain many secrets: religious, esoteric, romantic... Jean-Louis Bachelet reveals to us the hidden meaning of numerous masterpieces, by drawing on the very sources of their genesis. How and why could Wagner's works drive people crazy? Which secret rhythms in Debussy's music create that feeling of serenity? How did Shostakovich intend to terrify Nazi troops?

WORLD WAR II SEEN FROM ELSEWHERE

Despite their merits, our histories of World War II are all resolutely Western. Nearly 80 years later, it is time for a different viewpoint. Australia, Morocco, Switzerland, French-speaking Canada: what were their roles and involvement in this war? What does the Republic of Ireland's neutrality signify? Did the Vatican truly indulge Nazi Germany? What really happened at Mers el-Kébir? Why is Russia still obsessed by the "great patriotic war"? An all-new look at a supposedly well-known subject.
