Didier Jeunesse

Didier Jeunesse delights in the genre of oral literature – fairy tales, lullabies, songs – and aims to create opportunities to bring together generations in the spirit of the imagination. Didier Jeunesse has come a long way since the publication of the first book in the "Petits lascars" series in 1988. The catalogue now boasts more than 650 titles. The series "Les petits cousins," "Pirouette," "à petits petons," "Guinguette," "Rikiki," as well as cd-books are well-known both by the general audience and by professionals. Eric Battut, Martine Bourre, Elodie Nouhen, Cécile Hudrisier, and many others use painting, carving, collages, and scrap paper to illustrate children's books and offer innovative designs.

From the Middle Ages to the 1970s, Fredegund doesn't care about the fashions of the time and prefers to travel in time, free as the wind!

› FRÉDÉGONDE, LA PERCE-SIÈCLE

FREDEGUND, THE CENTURY- JUMPER

Fredegund is no ordinary little girl: she has the power to jump centuries. One morning in the 14th century, she bangs her drum and poof! She disappears to reappear, one hundred years later, in another castle, where she gets a 15th-century makeover. But the tight outfit practically suffocates her, so she jumps to the next century. With each drum stroke, she crosses time and refuses to let herself be swallowed up by uncomfortable clothes. A mischievous journey through the history of fashion!

GEORGETTE

A picture book that speaks of love, with tenderness and humor, without judgment or preconceived ideas. A little treasure to give to those you love!

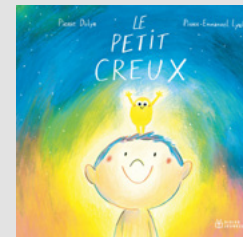

› L'AMOUR

LOVE

What is love, anyway? Georgette does not provide an answer, but shows love in all its forms through the eyes of a little girl and the sweet, passionate words she collects from the world around her: a pregnant woman, children on the playground, two boys, a grandpa, a grandma... "Love grows like a seed, with kisses and secrets. It's like a good place to hide, but with a huge roller coaster inside. It may not always sound sweet, but it gives great foot massages!" From simplicity comes universality!

Did you know that a baby already knows everything before being born? A moving and tender story with sparkling and psychedelic illustrations.

› LE PETIT CREUX

THE LITTLE HOLLOW

In his mommy's tummy, the baby knows all the stories and all the secrets of the world, and that's a lot! Fortunately, he has a friend with whom to share everything. The baby cannot wait to come out and talk about it all! But when the big day arrives, his friend places his finger on the baby's lips, right under his little nose, and says, "Shh..." And just like that, the baby forgets everything he knows and lets out his first cry. Thus begins a wonderful journey to discover the joys and secrets of life...
