SCHOLASTIQUE MUKASONGA

When a prophetess announces the coming of a female Black Messiah, her opponents join forces despite their differences. An homage to women's freedom.

SISTER DEBORAH

In the 1930s in East Africa, a vast movement of conversion to Christianity is underway. Reverend Marcus preaches about the imminent coming of a black savior. But Sister Deborah, a prophetess and miracle-worker, proclaims that the Messiah will be a black woman, destabilizing the men and the colonizing power. At the edges of a historical and fantastic tale, the French-Rwandan author masterfully recounts these power relationships while giving the women the strength of the undefeated.

MONICA SABOLO

How does one live after committing or enduring the irreparable? And how well do we really know those around us?

› LA VIE CLANDESTINE

THE CLANDESTINE LIFE

This novel traces the paths of characters who have but one thing in common: a clandestine life. On one hand, members of the far-left group "Action directe," which carried out dozens of attacks between 1979 and 1987. On the other hand, Monica Sabolo, raised in a bourgeois family ruled by secrets and lies, in the shadow of the occult activities of her father, who died without a word. As she makes her way through her investigation, she must confront the ghosts and the unspoken words of her past.

WHITE

Sylvain Tesson recounts his journey skiing across the Alps with a mountain guide, from 2018 to 2021, from Menton to Trieste by way of Switzerland, Austria, and Slovenia, that is, 1,600 kilometers and over 60,000 meters of elevation gain in the snow. Each day is a battle against the cold and fatigue, but also the source of an extraordinary experience within in the heart of this immaculate panorama, on the outskirts of modern topography, and whose wild unity and power nobody suspects.
