L'école des loisirs

Founded in 1923, L'école des loisirs is an independent family-owned publishing group. Since 1965, it has been entirely dedicated to children's books and became one of the largest publishing houses for children's books in France.

With a backlist of over 5,800 titles and 300 new titles per year (80% original titles),

L'école des loisirs enjoys a strong reputation among librarians, booksellers, and other book professionals. Its rich universe of characters has led to the creation of games and DVDs (picture books as films).

L'école des loisirs has two subsidiaries: Moritz Verlag in Germany and Babalibri in Italy; a comic books imprint, Rue de Sèvres; a Belgian imprint, Pastel; and a French imprint, Kaléidoscope.

BILLY UPSIDE DOWN

Billy's father, a cowboy hamster, has just read in the newspaper that Jumpin' Jojo is in the area. Jumpin' Jojo? The famous food thief?! They have to warn their neighbors. Billy and his friend Jean-Claude go to tell Grandmother Marten, and that's how they meet her granddaughter, a stone marten named Suzie. Together the three youngsters will give the thief the fright of his life.

TIME FOR SCHOOL, LEON!

Tomorrow is the first day of school, but Leon is not quite ready. The school is too far for his little legs. Besides, neither his little brother Marcel nor Francis the fish have to go. And what if he has to pee or wants to see his Daddy? And above all, his cuddly toy can't stay at home, all alone. No! Tomorrow simply isn't the right day to start school.
