Père Fouettard

Père Fouettard is a publishing house focusing on picture books, where artists from different horizons illustrate the great diversity of the world. We publish fun, wise, and unruly stories that tackle all forms of prejudice. Our main goal: that from a very young age, reading can become an act of joy, of discovery and wonder, of reflection and questioning.

LAURENT CARDON

Hens are arguing over the oldest question in the world: which came first, the chicken or the egg? A hilarious and inspiring story about beliefs.

› S'UNIR C'EST SE RÉINVENTER

BIRDS OF ALL FEATHERS

Nothing is wasted at the henhouse: every eggshell is collected and recycled. But one question is on everyone's mind: which came first, the chicken or the egg? Or did roosters or dinosaur eggs come first? While this question is important for philosophers, it proves explosive for hens!

THE TASTE OF FREEDOM

What does freedom taste like? It can be...
Sweet like blueberries when you enjoy it.
Bitter like coffee when it is imposed on us.
Fresh like watermelon when it is scary.
But also delicious when it is shared!
