PARIS BOOK market

30 & 31 May 2024

At the end of May, for the third year, Paris will host the PARIS BOOK MARKET, organized by the Bureau International de l'Édition Française (BIEF, International Bureau of French Publishing) and designed exclusively for professionals in the publishing industry. The event will bring together French foreign rights representatives and their international counterparts for two days of B-to-B meetings.

The Paris Book Market aims to promote French editorial production to foreign professionals. Like past years, The Paris Book Market 2024 will enable foreign publishers who are interested in acquiring rights of French titles to meet the rights sellers of French publishing houses.
